2023 Lesemarathon (Read-a-thon) Info:

- Read and record minutes on the printable Minute Tracking Calendar from March 6–March 20.
- Submit your student’s name and total number of minutes on our Google Form March 19–20.
- Minutes will be counted on the 21st, and prizes will be announced shortly thereafter!

Our 2023 Executive Director & Principal Challenge from Frau Christensen & Frau Zehnpfennig:

- Elementary School: If our school collectively reads more than 150,000 minutes, Frau Christensen will dress up as and visit classrooms throughout the day.
- Middle School: If our school collectively reads more than 150,000 minutes, Frau Zehnpfennig will kiss a reptile at the March M.S. Assembly!
- AND, the top class of elementary school will get to have a lunch party with Frau Christensen! The top middle school class will also get a surprise!

The top three readers from both elementary & middle school will be called to the library on March 24th for a Congratulations Certificate (there are no gift cards this year).

Other info:

- Reading in any language counts! (Though we encourage German, if possible!)
- Students can submit minutes they spent reading, being read to, or listening to an audiobook
- Minutes read at home and at school count!
